You can open a bank account at the “Sparkasse” which is located on the university campus. Several other bank institutes have offices in Dortmund, you can pick one freely.

Student accounts are usually free of charge. When you open a bank account, you will have to present your passport and the bank needs to know where the money in your account will be coming from (parents, stipend, savings, etc.).

The banks on campus are familiar with the needs of foreign students and when you open your account, be sure to ask for an ATM card. With this card, you can withdraw money from the ATMs of your bank throughout Germany.
You have to get in touch with the immigration department assigned to your place of residence within 90 days after your arrival.

Bürgerdienste Olpe 1 (Part C of the building)
44122 Dortmund

You can find more information here.
If you wish to study in Germany you need health insurance. Without it, you cannot be enrolled. So, as soon as possible after your arrival, you should get health insurance.

With a German insurance you can be sure that almost all costs will be covered. The insurance contribution amounts to approximately 95€ per month for students. There are two public insurance companies on campus. However, there are much more health insurance from which you can choose.

Please be informed that you can find the current office hours of International Office and the cancellation of consultation hours under the following link:

Besides that the International Office offers social counselling for international students who need help with financials, residential statuses, social or family based matters.

They also organize cultural events or get-togethers with other international students during the semester.

Please have a look at the website of the International Office for more information!

Here you can find a general overview of the two-year course program but for more information and details about the curriculum of the international Master's degree program in Manufacturing Technology (MMT) please download the brochure here:

We offer you a MMT German course with the beginners level A1, but the Department of Foreign Languages offers you German courses with different levels. If you have already taken German classes, you can sign up for the appropriate regular advanced course at the language center.

You can find more information about German courses at the TU Dortmund University on this page.
You can find the MMT Office at the faculty of Mechanical engineering.
